The copyright of individual photographs (where still valid) remains with the photographers or their assignees.

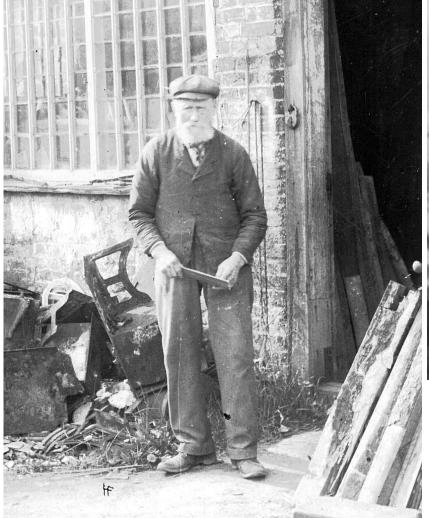

This album has been assembled from photographs held by Win Dullforce and Ken Baldry by Ken with the objective of giving any member of the family who is interested access to some of their antecedents and a little information about other members of the family. It is unashamedly Kennocentric but that's Ken for you. After all, he has done most of the work.

Additional photographs and information have been supplied by Joan Wallington Bartlett, Gwen Wallington Fancutt, Geof Baldry and Kathleen Smith, with corrections from John Andrews and Margaret (Rita) Dullforce Dowding. (I have adopted the American naming convention for the women to clarify who they were. That is, first name + maiden name + married name).

For the technically minded, the photos have been scanned by a Microtek Scanmaker II into an Apple Macintosh IIci computer, assembled with Adobe Pagemaker 6 in an Apple Power Mac 7100 computer and printed on a Hewlett Packard 4M+ Laser Printer.

George & Unity Ward

We know little about George Ward except that he lived in Amersham and married Unity Sarah Groom. Their children were: William, Harry, George II, Fred, Emma, Alice, Elizabeth, Kate & Rose. Apart from Alice (his Great-grandmother), Ken met Rose, who must have lived into the fifties.

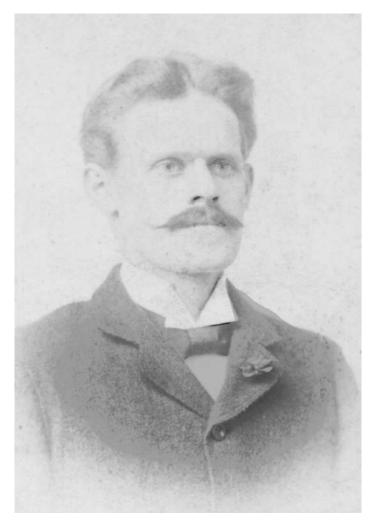

George Ward II

Another sister, Rose married twice, to Sibley & Bruton, a dustman (acording to Joan Bartlett) or gardener (according to Winifred Dullforce). Rosa always referred to him as 'Bruton'.

Arthur, Edith & Joan Wallington

Arthur (11-4-1895 - 1975) (no. 27) married Edith Partridge (19-8-1896 - 1974). (His brother Frank had married her sister Lily). Joan was born on 29-1-1923. Arthur served in World War One and worked in the Print. During WWII, he was a volunteer fireman. Joan (no. 28) married Charles Bartlett on 17-3-1962 but he died in 1974.

Frank Wallington & Lily Partridge

Frank Wallington married Lily Partridge. His brother Arthur later married her sister Edith. This was not unusual in earlier times. Lily was considered Right-wing even by the Wallington-Dullforce family! She lead the fifties campaign against Zoe Newton advertising milk products.

The Dullforces

James Thomas George Dullforce(1850-?) married Louisa Jane Julia Hurren (1855-1950) in 1880. They seem to have had a child a year for a while: Henrietta (Hettie), Ellen, Ethel, George, Minnie and Daisy Percy Bennett successively married both these sisters, Ethel dying young. After Hettie's death in 1965, Percy secretly married Edith. (Gertie Dullforce found out at his funeral). Percy's brother Charlie was once Mayor of West Ham.

Minnie (1886 - 1970) married firstly Percy Middleton (who's 1st World War experiences lead him to drink himself out of this marriage) and secondly, Harold Bridson, a rich accountant. They lived in Egypt until 1956, then in Cyprus until Harold's death, whereupon Minnie moved to the Isle of Man.

I also like ballroom dancing and have been in a couple of Showcases. It keeps me young! Kathleen on a horse at school

MISS KATHLEEN SMITH, only daughter of Mr and Mrs Leslie Douglas Smith, of Hazelbourne, Davenport Park Road, Davenport Park, Stockport, is sailing from Liverpool in the Emress of France, today, to Toronto where she hopes to obtain a secretarial post. She will join two friends who have been in Canada for 16 months.

She has been given introductions and has just completed six and a half years' secretarial work with a firm of textile engineers in the Royal Exchange, Manchester.

During the war, Miss Smith served in the W.A.A.F. wireless operating, and was subscription secretary to the R.A.F.A. She has been a member of Stockport Operatic Society since 1938 and appeared in the last seven shows, dancing and singing.

Paty. A Belgian sailor, ship-wrecked in 1940 & billeted with Gertie & George. He served 11 years with the French Foreign Legion before & was the only 'Belgian' in the Free French Army. He appears to have been related to Paty du Clam, one of the villains of the Dreyfus Affair & was determined to make amends to the French State for the 'disgrace' of his family. He went on the FFA Dakar Expedition & was never heard of again.

George with DeBot (sitting) & Paty. DeBot was Dutch & joined a Dutch motor coasting vessel owned by a relative, thanks to Eric putting them in touch.

Gertie at 55 in 1943. Gertie had a 'good' war, serving as an Voluntary Air-Raid Warden. She may not have enjoyed it exactly but it provided her with a feast of stories for the next 40 years.

Winifred Margaret Dullforce

Born 21-4-1916, Win had a career as an academic horticulturist, unusually acquiring all her degrees (1st, Masters & Doctorate) by theses. Although she modestly disclaims this, she certainly helped to build the world better lettuces and tomatos.

Odds and Ends

Ettie Hurren (Henrietta, Ettie to distinguish her from Hettie Dullforce Bennett) lived with her brother Will (no photo unfortunately, although he is on one of Rita Dullforce's Wedding) at Hampton. Will looked after Ettie after their father William ran away from their mother Polly for reasons unknown. They were fixtures in the Dullforce social scene.

The American Rances

When the American troops arrived in World War II, one of them, Bruce Rance advertised in a paper to contact 'Anyone called Rance from Chalfont St. Giles'. George saw this and gave the job to Gertie, who invited Bruce, who was from the Jonah Rance branch in Buffalo, New York State, USA. These are 1950s photographs of members of the Rance Family.

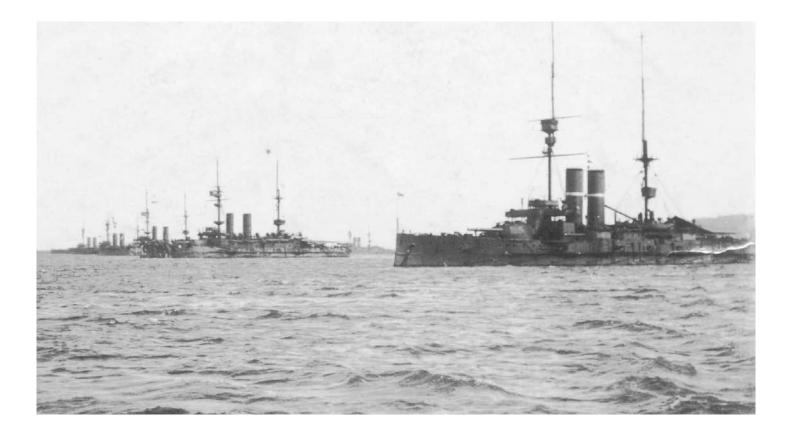

Gertie Dullforce's Plate Photographs

Two surviving photographs taken by Gertie circa 1900 at Portland with a plate camera. She developed them herself. These show astonishing detail. The upper is of cruisers and the lower of battleships (pre-Dreadnought at this date).

The French 'Rances' - Bazins

Lucy Lawrence, daughter of Ellen Lawrence née Rance, married Fred Bazin, a resident of St. Malo in Brittany. They had three children, Marguerite, Guy (who drowned young) and Georges (of whom there is another photograph with Gertie Dullforce). Georges was a schoolteacher & Resistance member.
